

Belgravia

OCTOBER 2020 #163

A CLASSIC RETURNS

Experience Japanese and Nordic cultures like never before

ALSO INSIDE: Yotam Ottolenghi on his new book Isabel Spearman returns with the Daily Dress Edit Scandal! The gangster, the peer and the cover-up

What's on

Outside at Eccleston Yards

Now until the weather allows

Enjoy al fresco dining and wellbeing in Eccleston Yards; from Morena, The Jones Family Kitchen, Hotpod Yoga and MasterPeace.

Eccleston Yards Market

Every Sunday 11am–5pm

Shop gifts, food, accessories, plants and more at the new Sunday Market in Eccleston Yards.

EDEN

September–October

EDEN is a green oasis in the middle of the city: find this urban grove in Halkin Arcade, just off Motcomb Street.

London Craft Week

30 September–8 October 2020

London Craft Week returns to Pimlico Road with talks, demonstrations, exhibitions and virtual events.

Daily Dress Edit

6–18 October 2020

The Daily Dress Edit by Isabel Spearman pops up at 25 Elizabeth Street for two weeks in October.

Discover more about brands, events and spaces in Belgravia at mayfairandbelgravia.com

 @Belgravia\_LDN

#FindYourBelgravia

Public art piece The Friendship Bench, by Australian artist duo Gillie and Marc Schattner, has been installed in Halkin Arcade, offering a spot for contemplation and an opportunity to engage with this artwork that explores the overcoming of differences.

THE FRIENDSHIP BENCH

JUDITH BLACKLOCK

The 16-year old floral school offers in-depth and calming workshops to help customers explore the mindful practice of flower-arranging, as well as more business-focused courses on floristry careers
4-5 Kinnerton Place South

MASTERPEACE

Art studio MasterPeace is hosting classes to get your creative juices flowing. Local professional artists will guide beginners and more advanced artists in their creative practice, with a focus on turning your favourite photo into a unique work of art.
12 Eccleston Yards

STUDIO POTTERY LONDON

This bright ceramics heaven is the perfect place to gain a new-found love of working with clay. All are welcome, whatever your skill level; intimate classes allow for one-to-one advice and technique tips, while pieces by the studio community are available to purchase, helping to support local makers.
29 Eccleston Place

WANDER ART
Artists from across the globe will contribute to Belgravia's Wander Art initiative, which will see works from emerging and more established artists on display throughout local streets, creating a unique viewing environment. Coming soon.

EDEN

On display until the end of October is Hagen Hinderdael's installation, EDEN, which celebrates the importance of green urban spaces, bringing an immersive experience to Halkin Arcade's serene garden space.

ECCLESTON YARDS MARKET

Find everything, from artisan foods, homeware, plants and art, at Eccleston Yards' Sunday market, which takes place weekly from 11am to 5pm. Wild by Tart is manning the pop-up bar, which will serve delicious drinks to enjoy while listening to live music.

Your community news from

GROSVENOR

Belgravia Bulletin

FOREWORD

THE streets of Belgravia are coming back to life and I hope that as you are all returning from either a long break from London or a summer spent outside of the city, you will be happy to see the neighbourhood rediscovering its former vibrancy with some new additions, including a Sunday market at Eccleston Yards where you can find food, drink, gifts, plants and homeware.

While 2020 has thrown many challenges in the way of Londoners, we have been delighted to see how some community initiatives have been embraced. The government's 'Eat Out to Help Out' scheme was such a success that we have extended it to many of our tenants. Hopefully by now you will have made the most of the extension, which runs until the end of September.

In that spirit we are bringing more culture and activity to the streets to be enjoyed by all. In Motcomb Street and Halkin Arcade we have installed EDEN, a dedication to the importance of urban greening, biodiversity and spending time in nature, and we have many more projects in the pipeline to improve the sustainability of our streets. In addition, street art is springing up on Elizabeth Street, Eccleston Yards and Halkin Arcade, and an outdoor gallery "Wander-Art" will be in place across Belgravia later this year.

The highly anticipated Pantechnicon on Motcomb Street has also opened its doors and if you haven't already, I urge you to go and enjoy their completely unique fusion of Japanese and Nordic culture and lifestyle, complete with a beautiful view of Belgravia.

Above: The new 'Friendship Bench' in Halkin Arcade with a floral arch by Neill Strain, one of the new pieces of artwork in Belgravia

Best wishes
Paul O'Grady
Belgravia Director

To receive the Belgravia Bulletin and events news by email, please contact belgravia.marketing@grosvenor.com

RETAIL NEWS

Eat Out to Help Out Extension

Grosvenor has extended the government's 'Eat Out to Help Out' scheme to provide further support to their food and beverage outlets throughout Mayfair and Belgravia.

Grosvenor will adopt the same rules as the existing scheme and will fund the promotion throughout September.

Eccleston Yards

Morena is now open; a coffee roaster, brunch and all day-dining restaurant in Eccleston Yards. Serving Latin American-inspired dishes with a contemporary twist, it was founded by two Colombian sisters, Juliana and Valentina, who bring the happiness and spirit of their home country to Belgravia.

Offering indoor and outdoor tables, dishes include arepas and tacos, served with stunning pink lemonade.

Follow our Instagram account to find out more @ecclestonyards

The Market at Eccleston Yards

Every Sunday from 11am to

ART AND EVENTS

Look out for street art popping up around Belgravia in Halkin Arcade, Elizabeth Street and Eccleston Yards. In Halkin Arcade, a Friendship Bench by world renowned sculptors Gillie and Marc is in situ for eight months. EDEN, an installation dedicated to urban greening and biodiversity, is in place until October. Please take a seat on the Friendship Bench or wander into EDEN for a serene moment, surrounded by an urban grove.

On Elizabeth Street, the Daily Dress Edit by Isabel Spearman, which was planned in May, is coming to the street for a two-week pop up showcasing independent brands' autumn edits. London Craft Week returns to Pimlico Road from September 30 to October 8; join in person or online for a selection of exhibitions, workshops, demonstrations and new collection releases.

Please follow @Belgravia_LDN on Instagram or sign up to the newsletter on mayfairandbelgravia.com for updates.

Homemade lemonade at Morena

5pm, with a mix of products from ceramics to art, jewellery and plants with a few new traders each week. There is also live music from noon, pizza and a pop-up bar.

Follow @ecclestonyards on Instagram for a weekly update on traders.

Buckingham Palace Road

We are delighted to announce the opening of Pulbrook and Gould at 42 Buckingham Palace Road.

The luxury florists founded in 1956 offer a range of real and artificial collections.

They are also Grosvenor's first all-inclusive green lease, and as part of this we completed the base fit out using Airlite paint which is proven to help eliminate bacteria, reduce pollutants, and lower painted surface temperatures.

This approach is part of Grosvenor's approach to make it easy for tenants to occupy our units and to use sustainable materials as part of the fit out process.

It is also a first step towards Grosvenor's bold 2030 Zero Carbon Commitment.

We have received successful planning permission for 14 Buckingham Palace Road to facilitate the new restaurateur, Singapulah.

A specialist in Singaporean cuisine, renowned chef Ellen Chew will focus on some of the classic dishes of Singapore in a traditional, authentic setting.

Elizabeth Street

NRBY has extended its pop-up on Elizabeth Street to make up for time lost trading due to Covid.

They can be found at 34 Elizabeth Street.

EDEN

Motcomb Street and Lowndes Street

The Pantechicon opened on September 22 (read all about what it has to offer with a feature on page 44).

Harry's of London, the contemporary footwear brand, is intending to open its Motcomb Street flagship store in the autumn.

We have a couple of vacant units on Lowndes Street, where it is intended to re-let for fashion-led businesses.

We have permitted significant seating in the Halkin Arcade through the summer for Petrus, Food Philosophy, The Fine Cheese Co. and The Alfred Tennyson.

We are investigating the viability of installing uplighting on some key retail streets and, if acceptable, we would hope to commence the project in 2021.

Kinnerton Street

A planning application for The Wilton Arms has been submitted but opening is delayed as a consequence of Covid-19. Indapubs, a small group of predominantly London pubs owned by James Corbett, will be starting on site when they can and are known for running great local pubs with an emphasis on fresh seasonal produce. To add yourself to their mailing list and be kept up-to-date with developments and pre-opening tasters, visit thewiltonarmssw1.com

The refurbishment of 63 Kinnerton Street has completed and the flat above is available for purchase through Ayrton Wylie.

West Halkin Street

8/8a West Halkin Street

– the former Barclays unit – planning consent was received in the third quarter of 2019 and provides for conversion to two retail units with new shop fronts. Full construction is due to start in the autumn.

Sunday market at Eccleston Yards